

Environmental Café 613

COP26 & Sacred writings from religions on the environment

Join us for an evening of prayers on the environment from the religions of the world, a brief presentation summarizing what came out of the UN Climate Change Conference, and open discussion as we reflect on what COP26 results mean to us through the light of unity of thought revealed in religious writings.

All are welcome, so take your tea or coffee and dessert, invite your friends and neighbors, and come enjoy Devotions, Music, Discussion and Fellowship at the Environmental Café 613 – online in Ottawa.
