

Environment Café 613 presents...

The Ottawa Wildflower Seed Library

Native Plants

and

Gardening for Pollinators

with Mélanie Ouellette, Founder and Chair

November 18th at 7:30 pm on Zoom

The Ottawa Wildflower Seed Library is a grassroots organization that promotes gardening with native plants to provide food and habitat for bees, butterflies, insects, birds, and other wildlife.

Click Here or Scan QR Code to Join Us On ZOOM

Please join us for Multifaith
Devotions, Live Music (Violinist Farid Mullally) ,
and an Insightful Presentation, followed by Discussion and Refreshments.

Ottawa Environment Forum

email: info@ottawaenvironment.ca